

JFK Electrical is a active member of the ABA - Arizona Builders Alliance

What is the ABA?

The Arizona Builders' Alliance represents more than 290 companies and their employees from open shop and union to general contractors, subcontractors, professional service firms and suppliers supporting the construction industry.

ABA is a merger of the Arizona Chapters of the Associated Builders & Contractors ABC and the Building Chapter Associated General Contractors AGC. Membership in the ABA provides access to a nationwide network of construction industry professionals, owners and builders, publications and services to enhance your company's visibility and profitability.

JFK Electrical President John Krecek joined the ABA soon after its merger and was elected as the President for the 2003 term. As Past-President he is still actively involved in the organization and continues to serve on the board of directors.
